The Conference on the Coast

Parenting a child with a disability can be challenging, but it's also rewarding. At this conference, October 28-30, in Crescent City at The Family Resource Center located at 494 Pacific Avenue Rowell Family Empowerment provides information on increasing your knowledge as parent leaders!

There will be workshops for professionals also who are interested in increasing their awareness of parenting a child with special needs and how they can have a positive impact.

Reserve your spot. No charge to parents!
